

Dr. Michael A. Jacoby
Executive Director/CEO
Illinois Association of School Business Officials

Dr. Jacoby has served as an educator for 40 years serving as a teacher, school business official, and Superintendent of Schools and now serving in his 16th year as the Executive Director/CEO of the Illinois Association of School Business Officials (Illinois ASBO). Dr. Jacoby is also one of the primary architects of Illinois Vision 20/20 and the Evidence Based Funding (EBF) formula for Illinois. He also served as a key policy voice on the Illinois ESSA Site-Based Reporting Advisory Task Force.

He is the current Editor of The Journal of School Business Management and is highly recognized as a leader in the education finance community. As the CEO of Illinois ASBO his leadership has positioned the organization as one of the leading associations in school business on both the national and international stage. Recent awards include the Greschem Outstanding Alumni Award from NIU and the Ben C. Hubbard Leadership Award from ISU. Dr. Jacoby also speaks often to school leaders across the country on topics surrounding leadership and character.

Dr. Jacoby has a Bachelors Degree in Music Education from The Univeristy of Iowa (1980), a Masters Degree in Educational Administration from Illinois State University (1985) and obtained his Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Northern Illinois University (1993).